REF Dec 2025

THE ETHOS OF OUR SCHOOL

Newtowngore National School is a co-educational primary school under the patronage of the Church of Ireland Bishop of Kilmore, Elphin and Ardagh. While it is a school with a Church of Ireland ethos, all pupils of whatever background or religious persuasion or none are equally valued, respected and welcomed.

Our school is committed to nurturing the unique potential of every child in a safe, caring and supportive environment where the child's intellectual, spiritual, social, physical, moral and cultural needs are supported. We strive to foster a positive atmosphere where self-respect, respect for others, and strong self-esteem are central to daily school life.

We promote high standards of behaviour that encourage confidence, creativity, initiative and positive social interactions. Guided by Christian values, we seek to cultivate honesty, fairness, justice and compassion. Religious Education, grounded in the Christian faith, is taught with sensitivity and respect for children of all backgrounds.

Together—as the Board of Management, staff, parents and pupils—we work to build a strong, caring school community where the holistic development of every child is supported and celebrated.
