ADMISSION POLICY

1. Introduction

This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the board of management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

The policy was approved by the school patron on 16th September 2020 and amendments in relation to the educational provision for children with special needs were approved by the patron on 13th January 2023. The policy is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for Newtowngore NS admission process are set out in the school's annual admission notice which is published annually on the school's website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned.

This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned.

The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Newtowngore NS is a co-educational primary school with a Church of Ireland ethos under the patronage of the Bishop of Kilmore, Elphin and Ardagh. The school endeavours to promote the moral, spiritual, emotional, intellectual, physical and social development of all the pupils in its care. The school reflects the ethos of the Church of Ireland and values of honesty, charity, kindness, patience and personal responsibility are encouraged. Equally, it encourages and practises respect for the traditions and teachings of other churches and spiritual communities. The teaching of Religious Education in this school does not involve religious formation or specifically confessional teaching as this is a matter for each family and their Church. The constitutional right of parents to withdraw their child from Religious Education is acknowledged. However, the attention of parents is drawn to the fact that due to accommodation constraints and the limited availability of staff, a child who is withdrawn from R.E. may have to remain in the classroom for the duration of the lesson. Children of other faiths and none are welcomed and affirmed.

Newtowngore NS is a community where all pupils are equally valued and respected - irrespective of gender, sexual orientation, social or ethnic background, family circumstances, educational achievement, physical characteristics or intellectual capacity.

Newtowngore NS is a community where the traditions and teaching of the Church of Ireland inform the position taken in regard to moral issues which arise in the teaching of secular subjects.

The work of the school is conducted in an atmosphere of inclusion, tolerance and respect for religious differences. The Admissions Policy of the school allows those of other faiths or none to enrol as pupils. Newtowngore NS values and recognises the contribution that pupils of different faiths bring to the life of the school.

Newtowngore NS is a part of the local church community and has strong links with the Parish. Pupils take part in services in the local church (eg. Advent, Easter etc.). Special events take place in the school to mark religious festivals and celebrations e.g. Christmas, Ash Wednesday etc. The Rector visit the school and take part in Assembly on a regular basis.

Time spent teaching Religious Education is per Department of Education guidelines. All pupils generally take part in Religious Education lessons. The Postal Bible School scheme is in use throughout all the classes.

At Newtowngore NS, we pride ourselves on being a happy place, where pupils enjoy coming every morning. Each child is valued for their own unique contribution and effort, and our long tradition of providing the widest range of opportunities for them from the arts to sport and, crucially and centrally, in the academic area lives on.
